

TITLE

The Conspiracy (Le Complot)

Year

1973

Duration

113 min

Color

Color...

Format

16x9 wide screen

Romance Drama

Thriller

SRP

$24.98

UPC

825307930993

CAT No.

PH-93099

Carton Qty

30

Studio

Pathfinder Home Ent..

Media Format

DVD-5

Order Date

Dec 24, 2013

Sale Date

Jan 21, 2014

Language

French w/ English Subtitles

Rating

NR

Synopsis

In 1962, members of the OAS (Organisation de l'Armée secrète - Organization of the Secret Army), led by General Clavet (Jean Rochefort - Innocents with Dirty Hands; The Hairdresser's Husband; Prêt-à-Porter), steal weapons and rob banks in their efforts to free General Challe from Tulle Prison. The Police assign Paraux (Raymond Pellegrin - Le Deuxieme Souffle) to assist Police Chief Lelong (Michel Bouquet - The Unfaithful Wife) in tracking them down. Despite having men on the inside of the Police, Clavet may be losing control of some of his factions, as terrorist acts begin to play a part.

With the Algerian War as a backdrop, The Conspiracy (Le Complot) is a classic spy tale based on true events, ripe with espionage and double-crosses! Also Starring Michel Duchaussoy (This Man Must Die; Mesrine).

Special Features & Extras

16 x 9 video presentation, Senes Selection , ON/OFF English Subtitles

DVD Cover

Director

René Gainville

Cast

Michel Bouquet, Michel Duchaussoy
Raymond Pellegrin, Jean Rochefort
Marina Vlady

Additional Information

"A true story of double, triple and quadruple-cross... galvanized by De Gaulle's decision to pull troops out of Algeria... holds up well."

-New York Times