Synopsis

The Producer of "Ring," "The Grudge," and "Dark Water," brings you this chilling tale of pop idols Mari, Mayuko, and Yu, investigating an exorcism for a television show. Unsui will perform the exorcism with his incredible psychic powers. His subjects are the Kaneda family, a single mother and her daughter who experience paranormal activities night after night. However, Unsui finds the demon to be too powerful and sadistic. He fails to defeat the demon, is badly injured and transported to the hospital. The idols cannot battle the demon alone. In their desperation, they enlist the help of a ghosthunter, one with a reckless reputation, and seems even more dangerous than the demon.
