SYNOPSIS:

A man finds his wife dead in the bathtub. He picks up the phone to call an ambulance, but puts it down before dialing emergency. Instead he makes himself a cup of coffee. Then, he drains the bath and brings his wife's corpse to the living room couch, where he falls asleep beside her.

The next morning, he is stunned to find himself in his bed. Even more surprising, his wife walks into the bedroom like nothing happened. Why is she alive? Last night, she died. Today, she is alive. The husband becomes obsessed with the improbability of his wife's resurrection.

DVD SPECIAL FEATURES:

Chapter Selections, Trailer, Still Gallery, Film Notes by Roseanna Lawrence, Making of, ON/OFF English Subtitles.

REVIEW:

"Ichio's debut feature is very simple... in the way that late Buñuel films are... yielding a vision that you'd have to call surreal." - Tony Ranes, Vancouver Int'l Film Festival
