SYNOPSIS	PARTY explores modern Asian-America through the prism of New York's Asian party scene. PARTY focuses on the vibrant Korean party scene in Manhattan's Koreatown at 32nd Street. It features narration by Prof. Gary Okihiro (Columbia University) who comments on the current state of Asian-America. The filmmakers also focus on the controversial Tsunami Song, highlighting the effect of the racially-charged song on the Asian party scene. What does this scene say about Asian-American identity?
DVD SPECIAL FEATURES	16x9 Anamorphic Presentation, Chapter Selections, Audio Commentary, Director's Interview, Original Soundtrack, Still Gallery
