Synopsis

"Touch" is a story of diversity and intertwined events, a film that keeps us in tune with the world. There is never sweet without sour.

We follow Suwon, a nurse who helps patients without homes. But this nurse has problems of her own. Her husband, once a member of the National Shooting Team, has lost his job due to alcoholism. This leads him to a hit and run accident. Before long, their daughter is sexually molested. Suwon's life is a constant mess, but she will learn that it is her life... the only life she knows. She will have to somehow make the best out of it.
